

The extra-mural activities can sharpen the vision, quicken the intellect, preserve the memory, activate the conscience, enhance the understanding and refresh the language. O.P Turner

Extra-mural activities are essential part of education as they contribute to the development of a holistic personality of the learners. We, at the DAV Jalandhar, have always recognised the significance and role of Extra Mural Activities.

Many an artist of national and international repute owe their initial grooming to the department of EMA during their stay here. The prominent artists picked, groomed and presented include Padam Bhushan Bhushan Jagjit Singh, the Ghazal maestro; Padam Shri Hans Raj Hans; Sukhwinder Singh, the bollywood playback signer; Tejwant Kittu, the music director, Adarsh Gautam, the top dubbing artist in Film and TV Industry in Mumbai, Suraj Thapar, The TV star, Saurabh Kapoor; producer at Headlines Today etc. Besides these outstanding performers there are a host of others whose association with the EMA department has led them to make their careers in the field of editing, sound recording, event management, dubbing, direction, set-designing, choreography and so on.

Amit Prasher has successfully directed his first Punjabi film Tu Mere 22, Mai Tera 22 recently.

In January 2013, a college artist Diljaan made to it the Runners-up position in a hugely popular reality music show “Surkshetra” on Colors and Sahara Channels. All the judges of the show namely Asha Bhonsle, Abida Praveen, Ghulam Ali, Roona Laila

Laila were highly impressed by this young boy's range and purity of singing. We at the EMA Department are justly proud of him and wish him a resplendent future.

Talent Hunt:

To pick and select building stars, EMA department organises a Talent Hunt show right in the beginning of the session where the talented newcomers showcase their talent and are chosen to be trained for the youth festivals. The talent hunt show is one of the most eagerly awaited programmes in the college calendar.

Fee Concessions:

The selected student artists are granted liberal fee concession depending upon their performances in the university youth festival and other inter-college competitions. At present this performance-linked incentives range from Rs. 5000/- to total freeship. Besides this monetary assistance; the department takes care of the costumes, trainers, transportation and refreshment of all the student artists. All winners are felicitated at the Annual Prize Distribution Function of the college.

Not only these activities help in developing an integrated all-round personality of the students, it also goes a long way in channelising the surplus energy of the youth in a positive and purposeful direction. The Department of Extra Mural Activities comprises a Dean, a Deputy Dean and various members of the staff who train students and coordinate various activities like Debates, Declamations, Quiz, Dramatics, Dance, Music and Fine Arts etc. At present, the department is headed by Dean Prof. Sharad Manocha with Prof. S J Talwar as the Deputy Dean. Dr. Anoop Kumar looks after Fine-Arts, Dr. Dinesh Arora is the in-charge of literary items, Prof. Rajan Sharma along with Prof. Reena and Anupma coordinate various items of Indian Music. Dramatics, Western Music, Bhangra are supervised by Dean and Dy. Dean themselves. Prof. Komal Soni, Prof. Ekjot Kaur and Prof. R M Yadav help the budding quizzers and folk dancers.
