

Volunteers of NSS Unit DAV college are serving village Nandanpur.

In the camp organised by the NSS unit of DAV college Jalandhar the volunteers are performing very efficiently and with enthusiasm for the development of the village. 120 volunteers of _____ NSS unit have joined hands to help in the development and betterment of an elementary school at village Nandanpur . They are also helping for the development of roads of the village. Also they performed a survey at the village and discussed the problems of the families. The NSS team with their contributions gifted mats for the students the school.

Daily guest lectures are also being organised at the camp where discussion about different social evils which are prevailing in our society. On the first day of the camp the chief guest were Retired professor of _____ DAV college Prof. Ashvani Sharma and they discussed how to change the people of the society, how to serve the system and how to be different from people with the students. On the second day Yog instructor Mr Manoj Kumar came at the camp and said on the topic " Yog is the medicine of any disease". He told about how yog is helpfull in cure of each and every disease.

On the third day of the camp some members of a de-addiction centre joined the camp, who told how to keep the youth away from drugs, how the addicts are being treated and many other things related to it. The interesting thing is from the de addiction centre some people also came who were earlier addicts. They shared their experiences how they came into drugs, how they became addicts, how their life changed after the treatment. They were very thankful to the centre and now they help the centre to aware the people about this. They also told that punjab is been caught in drugs very badly. Almost 75% of the youth of punjab is caught in drugs.

With this the camp will continue till 26 December in which many other resource person will come at the camp.
